RE: United States v. Jose Irizarry
23 Cr. 60 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman,

I write with respect to Jose Irizarry's placement in Cornerstone's inpatient substance abuse treatment program. After conferring with Pre-Trial Services Officer Francesca Piperato and Mr. Irizarry, Mr. Irizarry has agreed to extend his in-patient treatment at Cornerstone from tomorrow, March 6, 2024, to the date of his sentencing, March 15, 2024, to continue to avail himself of the program's services and set himself up for success upon discharge. Officer Piperato has informed me that the Court must issue an order authorizing an extension of Mr. Irizarry's placement at the facility, which I respectfully request the Court issue by endorsing this letter motion. Officer Piperato has also informed me that, given the substantial progress Mr. Irizarry has made at Cornerstone and his willingness to extend his treatment by nine days, Pre-Trial Services will not object to a five-week surrender date following Mr. Irizarry's sentencing proceeding.

Respectfully Submitted,

Andrew John Dalack, Esq.
